City Renews Contract with Waste Management

A contract approved by the Romulus City Council on March 13 ensures that residents' current waste-collection services will continue through the next 18 months.

Low-bidder Waste Management, which has been servicing the City of Romulus for 15 years, currently provides curbside pickup of household and yard wastes as well as various recyclable materials.

Carey Weihmiller, municipal marketing representative for Waste Management, attended the most recent Council meeting to answer questions about her company's proposal. Among the concerns she addressed was finding ways to promote more community participation in recycling.

"Currently, only 50% to 60% of Romulus residents are using our recycling services," she stated. "Our goal is to raise that level to 80% to 90%."

Weihmiller identified a number of means that Waste Management will use to promote recycling, including the use of educational mailers and the implementation of a "Cash for Trash" program.

"Cash for Trash has already proven to be an effective program in other communities," she explained. "Twice a year – in April, in recognition of Earth Week, and in November, in observance of America Recycles Week – Waste Management will award two $50 prizes to randomly selected residents who use our recycling services and properly prepare their recyclable materials."

Weihmiller will also work with local schools to educate the community's youth about the importance of recycling. These coordinated efforts will feature the distribution of informational materials as well as tours of the company's Woodland Meadows landfill in Wayne.

Residents who would like to begin recycling, but lack a proper bin, may contact the City of Romulus to receive one of 200 that Waste Management has agreed to donate. The company will also make a free bin available to new homeowners; just call 800-796-9696 to request one.

Questions from Council members included Bill Crova's query about the possibility of extending Waste Management's yard-waste collection period to take advantage of the unseasonably mild weather that Michigan has recently experienced in the very late fall and very early spring. Weihmiller assured Council that her company will be happy to work with the City to establish more flexible dates, with any additional costs figured by using the overall contract rate to calculate a weekly rate that can be levied as needed. (Currently, yard-waste pickup is scheduled to begin on April 3.)

At the request of Councilman Bill Wadsworth, Weihmiller also promised to look into the possibility of adding cardboard waste, such as pizza and cereal boxes, to the list of items that are accepted for recycling. She noted that

1986 RHS State Basketball Champs Celebrate Anniversary

Chamber Honors Maria Lambert

Chief among the many well-wishers who attended a recognition dinner for Maria Lambert (center) – named Person of the Year by the Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce – were her father, Mario Devita (front), and her sons, Eric, Julian, and Joseph (back, from left). The event, held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel on March 10, honored Romulus Downtown Development Authority director Lambert for her dedicated service to the City as well as for her tireless volunteer efforts with groups such as the Romulus Pumpkin Festival Committee. Among the evening's highlights was a slide-show presentation featuring Lambert and her accomplishments throughout the years.

Waste Management Contract Approved

Waste Management has been reluctant to accept pizza boxes, in particular, because they are often greasy or covered in cheese, which attracts rodents and other pests, but added, "I think we can work something out" if it is an issue about which Council feels strongly.

The City's contract with Waste Management will expire on June 30, 2010.

Water & Sewer Bond Approved

In other action taken during the March 13 meeting, Council approved a Water and Sewer Capital Improvement Bond to fund improvements (including water-main replacement) to the City's water-supply and sewage-disposal system. The bond, which cannot exceed $7 million, will be repaid with Water and Sewer Fund revenues.

Brooks, Buckley No Longer with City

Betsey Krampitz, Chief of Staff to Mayor Alan R. Lambert, confirmed Tuesday that Department of Public Works director Carl Brooks retired earlier this month, and that Department of Parks and Recreation director Herbert Buckley is no longer with the City.

Krampitz had no further comment on the departure of either department head, other than to note that employee issues are confidential.

According to Krampitz, neither position will be immediately refilled. OHM – a regional provider of civil engineering, surveying, and computerized information system services – will be conducting a needs assessment and presenting its recommendations to the City.

In the meantime, DPW assistant director Richard Suiter and Recreation Programs coordinator Kristin Irwin will oversee their respective departments.

Absentee Voters Must Call Clerk's Office to Receive Application

Just a reminder that everyone planning to cast an absentee ballot in the May 2 school election must write (11111 South Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan 48174) or call (734-942-7540) the Romulus City Clerk's Office to request an application. Due to recent rulings issued by a Wayne County Circuit Court judge, the City can no longer mail out an application without a specific request from the voter.

Candidates for Precinct Delegate Must File by May 16

Residents interested in running for precinct delegate in the upcoming August primary election must file an affidavit of identity with either the Romulus or Wayne County Clerk's Office no later than 4 p.m. on Tuesday, May 16.

Potential candidates should note that they must be a resident of the precinct for which they are running, and may only receive votes from other residents of that precinct. Supporting votes cast by residents of other precincts will not be counted.

According to Romulus City Clerk Linda Choate, precinct delegates can win an election with just one vote.

For more information, contact the City Clerk's Office: 734-942-7540. □

THANK YOU!

After my brief battle with a serious illness, and the road I now travel on my way to recovery, I must stop for a moment to give thanks.

With all my heart, I am thankful for my family, my congregation, my friends, and my community! Your prayers, the words of encouragement, the visits, the flowers, the avalanche of cards and phone calls, and other acts of love and well-wishes have made the difference. During the most difficult days, just knowing that I had so many friends "pulling for me" was a source of strength.

I wish I could name each person and organization, but the list is so long! Please accept this simple note of love and appreciation for you!

RHS State Basketball Champs Celebrate 20th Anniversary

Romulus High School's 1986 state champion basketball team celebrated the 20th anniversary of its memorable achievement with a reunion at Romulus High School. Those who attended the event—including team members, cheerleaders, former and current district personnel, and local residents—were treated to an excellent meal prepared by the RHS Culinary Arts Department. Team members received handsome basketball-player figures and cheerleaders were presented with commemorative medallions during halftime festivities at the recent Romulus-Ypsilanti game.

Former head coach Al Wilkerson, now the principal at Community High School, was very happy to see eight of his former players at the reunion.

"We had a great time, and shared many memories of our historic tournament run," said Wilkerson, who will retire this June after 30 years with the district. "For those who don't remember, we shot almost 70%, and beat Detroit Southwestern, the number-one team in Michigan at that time, to win the championship game."

Former Romulus Athletics Department director Lowell Johnson was also among those in attendance, as was high-school All-American Terry Mills, who later won a national championship with the University of Michigan and starred in the NBA. Additional team members who were on hand for the reunion included current RHS assistant coach Steve Glenn, Javo Keith, Avery Jones, Juan Street, Kano Staple, Troy Tipton, and Maurice Butts, as well as Wilkerson's sons, ball boys Brad and Bryan Wilkerson.

On behalf of the Romulus Community Schools and the residents of Romulus, district spokesperson Dick Kruse extended his best wishes to the team.

"We thank them for the unforgettable memories and the great pride they brought to Romulus," he said. □

RHS JV Basketball Team Finishes Perfect 19-0 Season

A perfect 19-0 record posted by the Romulus High School Eagles junior varsity basketball team during the 2005-2006 season bodes well for the future of RHS basketball, according to Romulus Community Schools spokesperson Dick Kruse.

"The Eagles won most of their games by 20 points or more, but had two real barn-burners," said Kruse. "They managed to beat Saginaw Arthur Hill by two points in overtime, and had to survive an unbelievable finish to beat Ann Arbor Huron, 60-59."

In the Ann Arbor game, down by 3 points with 20 seconds remaining, the Eagles brought the ball down court. Ten seconds later, Martell Anderson tied the game with a long three-point basket from the corner, but then a River Rats guard raced untouched the length of the floor to score a layup with just 5 seconds to go. The Eagles' Devin Pankey quickly came back and put up a 12-foot shot as time expired, but the ball, which initially got stuck between the rim and the basket, fell harmlessly to the floor.

Unnoticed in the scramble, however, was the referee's whistle. Pankey went to the free-throw line with an opportunity to tie the game with 2 shots. When he missed the first basket, the Ann Arbor players went wild in celebration, only to hear the referee's whistle again. The River Rats had drawn a technical foul because they had too many players on the court. After Pankey made his second free throw, making the score 59-58 Huron, star guard Filmore Bouldes came out to swish both technical free throws and win the game.

"This was an unbelievable season, and I really have to compliment the kids," said Baker. "We just had a really good team this year, and it was a pleasure to coach and work with them." □

A fund-raiser for the family of Ed Horn, a Romulus Community Schools employee who was recently diagnosed with a rare form of cancer, will be held at Romulus High School (9650 Wayne Road, just north of I-94) on Tuesday, April 4, at 6 p.m. Highlights of the event will include hors d'oeuvres, a silent auction, and a comedy show featuring Mark Knope (seen on Comedy Central).

Wick Presents Shakespeare's Macbeth

Students from fifth-/sixth-grade teacher Tom Gibb-Randall's class at Wick Elementary recently gave two outstanding performances of William Shakespeare's Macbeth, receiving standing ovations for both.

"The student actors and actresses all spoke with clarity and good projection throughout the programs," said district spokesperson Dick Kruse. "The students had their lines ... memorized, and delivered them with confidence throughout the two performances."

Even more impressive, said Kruse, were the scenery, lighting effects, and wardrobes.

"The students were really into this performance, were obviously well prepared, and had spent a lot of after-school preparation time on the program," Kruse noted. "Wick Elementary School teacher Tom Gibb-Randall and his cast should all be commended for this memorable performance."

Portraying the play's witches were (from left) Chelsea Shellman, Jillian Camilleri, Maya Davis, Christina Flint, Briana Bothwell, and Louise Hood.
